

Check out our new website: Thanks to volunteers from GiveCamp, HRRRC has a fresh, modern, and interactive site. You can now submit contractor evaluations and register for programs on line, view and print out our handouts, learn about coming events, and make donations using your credit card. Our website is www.hrrc-ch.org – and we encourage you to pay it a visit. (You can also get helpful tips and the latest news by liking us on FaceBook and following us on Twitter.)
